DIMHRS (Manpower)

Organization Identifier

JRIB – March 31, 2005

Defense Integrated Military Human Resources System
for Manpower

▸ Provide Overview of:

- Goals

- Strategy

- Approach

- Stakeholders

▶ Develop and implement the use of an Organization Identifier to be used to uniquely identify each organization, military and civilian, within DoD

▶ Ensure that each entity within DoD has one unique identifier and that these DoD identifiers do not conflict with each other

▶ Support DoD net-centricity and War Fighter Domain and Business Area Processes

▶ Determine proper use of Organization Identifiers

▶ Identify responsibility for development and maintenance of required servers

Strategy

▶ Support policy development needed to integrate Organization Identifier implementation within overall DoD Identifier efforts

▶ Determine means to minimize impact on DoD components and data systems

▶ Develop and implement Organization Identifiers on a timeline that corresponds with other DoD Identifier timelines and related initiatives (DIMHRS Manpower)

▶ Leverage work completed or in progress supporting other DoD-wide Identifier efforts

▶ Engage appropriate stakeholders to ensure support and timely implementation

Approach

▸ Leverage Unique Identifier Capstone Directive work to determine DoD Unique Identifier responsibility areas and implementation requirements

▸ Establish an Organization Identifier Working Group to determine functional and technical requirements

▸ Support Development of OUSD (P&R) Organization Identifier Policy

Stakeholders

- OUSD (P&R)
  - Readiness
  - Requirements
  - Analysis/Reporting

- Joint Staff / J8 (MASO)

- OSD (AT&L)

- OSD (PA&E)

- OASD(NII)

- OUSD (Comptroller)

Questions/Discussion